I go to APM with my Mum and Dad on Sunday. It is sunny. I go there by bus.
First I go to the gift shop. I buy a birthday card.
Then I go to the clothes shop. I buy a pink skirt.
Finally I go to the bookshop. I buy comics.
I feel very happy.

Primary 1 and 2 students who worked hard and behaved well in PLP-R/W lessons this year were rewarded with some great prizes. Students had to get five stars to get a lucky draw ticket. 2 students from each class won either a pizza lunch with Mr. Steven or a McDonald's coupon. Many other students won smaller prizes too. ## School Debating Team

Is playing Pokémon Go good for learning English?

Our debating team took part in several debating matches this year. One of the hot topics was about Pokémon Go. First, read the arguments for and against the motion below and decide if you think playing Pokémon Go helps us to learn English.

The average Pokémon player plays for 42 minutes every day and catches 22 Pokémon. This is a healthy activity!

But over 4 billion people in the world don't have a smartphone so they can't play it. So we can't say it's a great game.

I don't agree. Did you know that 52% of people made new friends when playing the game?! It's a great way for shy people to socialise!

I don't agree at all. You don't know who you are meeting when you play the game. There are too many risks. It's Pokémon No, not Pokémon Go!

Pokémon Go has got millions of people off their sofas and onto the running track in just a few months. If that isn't great, then what is?!

If it's so great, then why are there so many limitations and risks and even technical problems when playing the game? It's not a great game!

It's time to laugh!

Jokes are things that people say to make us laugh. You can make up your own jokes or find them in books.

Here are some examples:

What do you call an old snowman? Water.

What did one wall say to the other wall? I'll meet you at the corner.

Why can't you give Elsa a balloon? Because she will let it go!

What kind of food does a racehorse eat? Fast food.
